Editorial

We are starting the year with an en primeur offer of Domaine de Trévallon, 2011 white, and 2010 red. (The domaine is now bottling the 2009 red and 2010 white, which will be available in March 2012 - if you purchased these wines from us en primeur, you will receive details as soon as the wines are available).

Some old vintages, some more recent. The Muscadets from Jo Landron in 2010, and his Haute Tradition, a wine for long ageing, in 2009 and 2010. Some Jurançons from Clos Lapeyre, and Minerwois from Gravillas, as well as a range of Burgundy from Domaine Jean Fournier - you can taste his wines at our next tasting on the 25th February. Some old vintages - a number of unlabelled bottles discovered in a cellar in the Allier region, which was walled up in 1940.

We also have the price for the 2009 Montcalmès, see our opening offer below.

Our list is available by email, in PDF format, or by post - but only contains a selection of our wines. Please ask if you are looking for a particular wine, vintage, or domaine. We deliver throughout Europe by Coliposte.

If you would like to receive our offers and newsletters, please ask.

1964 Mouton Cadet

The Mouton Cadet label has existed since the 1930s, when the wine was the second wine of Mouton. In the 1960s, the wine was partially from young vines at Mouton d'Armailhac. The 1964 is still drinking well.

We have some bottles of old red wine from a cellar discovered in the Alliers region, which had been walled up in 1940 to hide the wines from the German troops. The new owners of the property discovered the cellar by accident whilst renovating. The cellar contained a large quantity of wines, mostly without any labels. Amongst the labelled wines, the vintages went from 1904 (Lafite), to 1926 (Vosne and Pommard Rugiens), with a good quantity of wines from the decade 1910 - 1920. We still have a few Burgundy shaped bottles of old reds.

2009 Montcalmès Opening Offer

The 2009 Montcalmès is now in bottle, and will be available by the end of May. Our opening offer prices are inclusive of taxes, for orders paid before the 31st March 2012. 2009 is a more powerful vintage than the 2008, with firm tannins and concentrated red fruit flavours, still in the classic style of the domaine.
